JOB VACANCY

DEVELOPER

TRAC require a Software Developer for a bespoke web application project(s)

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Fix, maintain and develop existing web applications
- Review existing databases used within TRAC
- Work with teams and departments on ongoing planning, development, testing and support
- Ensure effective data management and security within TRAC Databases and related infrastructure.
- Work in line with HSEQ system

COMPETENCY REQUIREMENTS

Qualifications

- Degree / relevant technical qualification / experience in IT, Software or Development

Experience/Knowledge
- Experience in design, management & maintenance of databases.
- Working knowledge of PHP, Laravel Framework, MySql, JavaScript, CSS, HTML.

Additional Skills/Requirements
- Working knowledge of Git, Apache, JQuery, Linux, Bootstrap.
- UI Design
- Software Testing
- Excellent planning and organisation skills with ability to deliver results.
- Computer literate with high level of competence in the use of Microsoft Office packages
- Excellent communication skills – written and oral.
- Develop highly effective working relationships

LINE MANAGER

IT Systems Analyst

CONTRACT

This is a fixed-term project contract (initially). Project length TBC. The hours are negotiable and can be part or full time. There is potential for the role to become permanent.

LOCATION

This position shall be based in our Aberdeen head office with some flexibility on remote working

APPLICATION

CV's and covering letters should be addressed to Ali Hardy, IT Systems Analyst - ali [dot] hardy [at] trac [dot] com